THE HONOUR CODE

I Alisha Agrawal, Entry No. 2015 ME10366, do hereby undertake that as a student at IIT DELHI:

- (1) I will not give or receive aid in examinations; that I will not give or receive unpermitted aid in class work, in preparation of reports, or in any other work that is to be used by the instructor as the basis of grading; and
- (2) I will do my share and take an active part in seeing to it that others as well as myself uphold the spirit and letter of the Honour Code.

I realize that some examples of misconduct which are regarded as being in violation of the Honour Code include:

- copying from another's examination paper or allowing another to copy from one's own paper;
- unpermitted collaboration;
- plagiarism;
- revising and resubmitting a marked quiz or examination paper for re-grading without the instructor's knowledge and consent;
- giving or receiving unpermitted aid on take-home examinations;
- representing as one's own work the work of another, including information available on the Internet; and
- giving or receiving aid on an academic assignment under circumstances in which a reasonable person should have known that such aid was not permitted.
- committing a cyber offence, such as, breaking passwords and accounts, sharing passwords, electronic copying, planting viruses, etc.

I accept that any act of mine that can be considered to be an Honour Code violation will invite disciplinary action.
