

Rural Industrialization and Policies

Major Exam Question Paper Total marks : 40

Objective questions (13 marks)

1. ✓ The key objective of the industrial policy is to maintain a ^{Sustained go.} in productivity
2. ✓ India had first Industrial Policy Resolution of post-independence
3. ✓ It laid down that, and, would be the monopoly of the Central Government.
4. ✓ Certain structural distortions in were addressed through
5. ✓ list of industries exclusively reserved for the small scale sector expanded from 180 items to more than 500 items in
6. ✓ Key sectors of MSME are and
7. ✓ and taxation is a key challenge of MSME
8. ✓ Make in India was launched on (date)

Short answers (3 marks each)

9. ✓ Enlist the changes in industrial policy post liberalisation in India discuss their effects on economic growth.
10. ✓ Draw a flowchart and explain in few lines depicting classification of MSME
11. ✓ Write a short note about new industrial policy 1991.
12. ✓ Which are the five industries under compulsory licensing ?

Each question (5 marks)

13. Define industrial policy. Discuss its role and importance in the economic growth and inclusive development of a country.

OR

What do you understand by 'Make in India' campaign. How India can make use of them to have a global competitive advantage in the manufacturing sector?